

HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY

(Document PDHe – IAM r0)

Injection Alloys is commitment to identify, avoid and address negative impacts on internationally-recognized human rights, our focus is identified, prevent, mitigate, and account for human rights impacts on the following aspects.

- Forced labor and human trafficking
- Child labor
- Working time
- Wages and benefits
- Fair and equal treatment
- Workplace safety
- Freedom of association

We have appropriate interrelations and communication with governmental entities to assure the compliance with the regulation.

Ramiro Becerra Cortes
General Director